1.5 Registration. Each individual or entity that owns property in Grady County upon which one or more regulated uses are conducted must register with Grady County, prior to conducting such use or uses, by completing a registration form approved by the Grady County Board of Commissioners and by submitting the completed form to the Grady County Code Enforcement Department. The registration form shall include the identity of an individual (the “Manager”) who will manage the regulated use(s) conducted on the property and who will be personally responsible for any violation of the provisions of the Regulations for Specific Land Use, as amended.

6.12 Variance. The Grady County Board of Commissioners shall have the power to authorize upon petition such variance from the terms of these regulations such as will not be contrary to the public interest, where a literal enforcement of the land use requirements would result in undue hardship. Application for a variance shall be filed by the owner, with the Building Official, thirty days before the next scheduled meeting of the Board of Commissioners on forms provided by the Building Official. Public notice of the consideration of a variance shall be given no less than fifteen days or more than forty-five days prior to the meeting of the County Commissioners when such request will be considered and action may be taken. Public hearing notices will be published within a newspaper of general circulation within Grady County. Additionally, a sign containing the public notice information shall be placed in a conspicuous location on the subject property not less than 15 days prior to the date of the hearing. The public notices will state the time, place and purpose of the requested variance hearing.

6.13 Criteria for the Consideration of a Variance. The following criteria shall be utilized when considering specific cases where the granting of a variance from the terms of these regulations will not be contrary to the public interest where, owing to special conditions, a literal enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance will, in an individual case, result in unnecessary hardship so that the spirit of these regulations shall be observed, public safety and welfare assured and substantial justice done. Such variance may be granted in such individual case of unnecessary hardship upon the finding of the Board of Commissioners that:

- A. There are extraordinary and exceptional conditions pertaining to the particular piece of property in question and because of its size, shape or topography; and,
- B. The application of these Regulations to this particular piece of property would create an undue hardship; and,
- C. Such conditions are particular to the particular piece of property involved and not the making of the applicant; and,
- D. Relief, if granted, would not cause substantial detriment to the public good, or impair the purposes and intent of these Regulations, provided, however, that not variance may be granted for a use of land or building or structure that is prohibited by these Regulations or State and/or Federal Laws; and,
