Public Comments

John Monds, 1017 Old Thomasville Rd

Commissioner Prince stated that the SPLOST was not a new tax, but it is. Mr. Monds stated that all the pennies add up. He will vote against the SPLOST and does not like extortion by stating this is going to happen if the SPLOST is not passed. He stated that the Commissioners wanted the citizens to vote to raise taxes.

Betty Godwin, 369 Pine Park Rd

Mrs. Godwin submitted an open records request as she thought the county administrator was being evaluated at today’s meeting, she stated that she requested to receive the performance standards for the county administrator but did not receive them. She requested to see where the board had given approval for the County administrator to use a county vehicle to travel home and was told this was given verbally by the commissioners. Mrs. Godwin stated that she estimated that it would cost $10,000.00 for him to use the county vehicle. It was stated when the trucks were approved that they were for code enforcement and she does not believe they need two trucks. She does not agree with things in his contract.

Presentations

Enterprise Fleet Services – Chelsea Carroll, Fleet Account Manager

Mrs. Carroll discussed Enterprise’s maintenance program. For a fee of $6.00 per month per vehicle they will provide routine maintenance at negotiated prices and track the service and maintenance on the vehicles. This program can be used with the shop as well as 154 local shops within a 50-mile radius. The program has an app available that will send alerts for maintenance and assist in locating a location to perform the maintenance. County Administrator Johnson stated that this would free up the shop so it could focus on keeping the heavy equipment repaired.

First Tryon – Tom Woodward

Mr. Woodward works with First Tryon out of Atlanta, GA. Mr. Woodward presented on refinancing the bonds the county has and helping the county improve its credit rating. The presentation showed where the county could see
